▶ Beatrix Potter was born long ago in England.
The year was 1866.
She was born in a city.
But she loved the country.

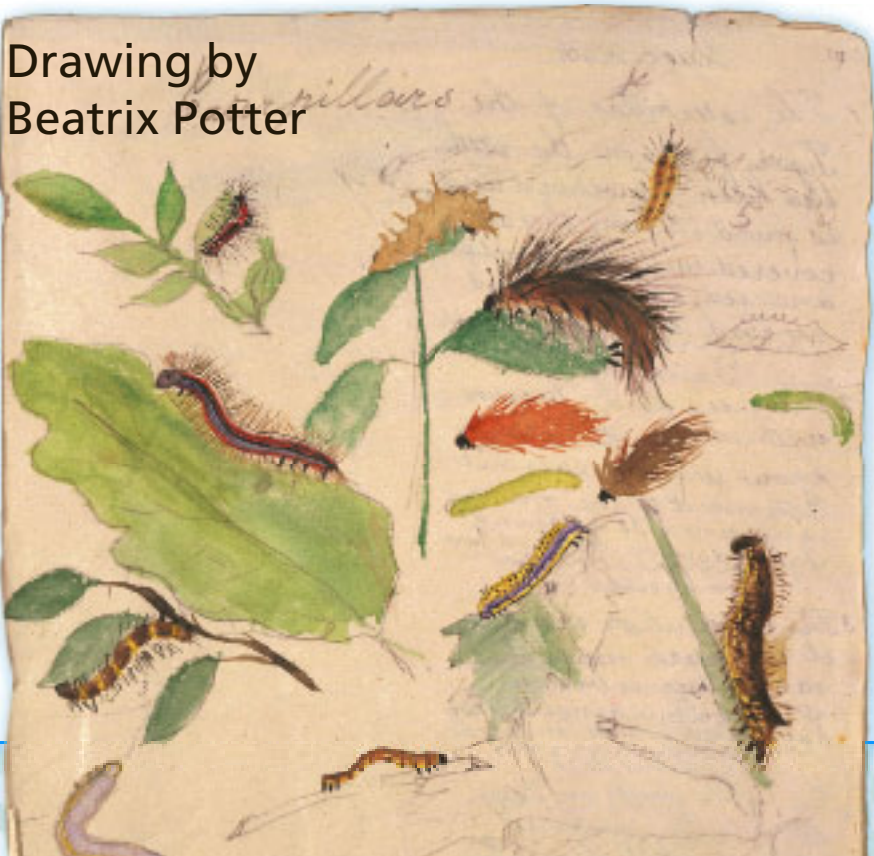

▶ Beatrix Potter

- ▶ In summer, her family lived in a big country house. Beatrix had many pets. She had two rabbits, named Peter Piper and Benjamin Bouncer.
- ▶ She also had a frog, a lizard, and a bat!

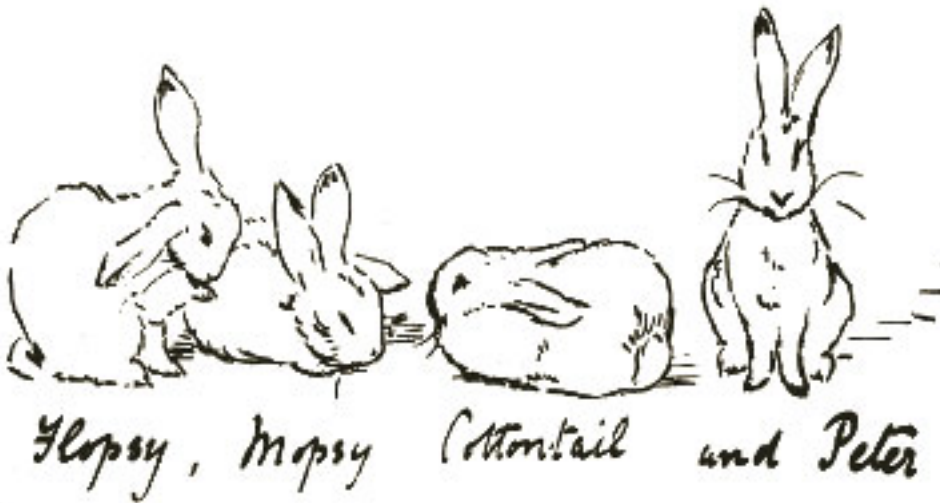

▶ Beatrix loved to draw her pets,
and she loved to be outside.
So she taught herself to draw things that she saw in nature.
She drew leaves and caterpillars.
Her drawings had stories to tell!

▶ Drawing by
Beatrix Potter

- ▶ When she grew up, Beatrix still drew pictures. One day, Beatrix wrote a story for a sick child.
- ▶ She drew pictures that helped tell the story. She called it "The Tale of Peter Rabbit."

▶ The sick child loved the “Tale of Peter Rabbit”!
Other children loved the story, too.
So Beatrix wrote many more.
Her readers wondered what would happen next.

▶ Peter Rabbit

Her books were always about animals.

She painted a picture on every other page.

Her books were also a perfect size for children.

Beatrix wanted them to be easy for little hands to hold.

Reading

- Her books sold very well.
They made her a lot of money.
Beatrix still loved the country.
So she used this money
to buy a house.
- It had a farm,
and it was in the country.
She could be near plants
and animals.

Hill Top Farm

▶ Beatrix did not pretend to be a farmer.

She was a real farmer.

She raised pigs and sheep.

Her animals went to fairs

and won prizes.

An aerial photograph of a valley. In the center, a large white house with a dark roof is surrounded by stone walls and green fields. The foreground is filled with trees with autumn-colored leaves in shades of orange, yellow, and brown. The background shows rolling hills with patches of green and brown vegetation.

▶ Beatrix protected a lot of land from builders and factories. She died in 1943. Part of her farm was made into a national park.
