

BOOK REPORT: SANDWICH

Due Date: January 29, 2016

Student will use information from their reading book to create a sandwich using the templates provided by Mrs. An.

MATERIALS:

- (1) Sandwich templates (bread, lettuce, tomato, meat, cheese, onion bread)
- (2) String or ring used to hold the sandwich together

DIRECTIONS

1. Write the book title, author, illustrator and your name on the BREAD top.
2. Write a one-paragraph summary of the book on the LETTUCE.
3. Draw the book's setting on the TOMATO.
4. Describe the main character on the MEAT (use at least 3 character traits).
5. Write about a part of the book that made you happy on the CHEESE.
6. Describe a part of the book that you thought was sweet or sad on the ONION.
7. Tell what you liked or didn't like about the book on the bottom BREAD.
8. Put your sandwich together. Fasten it all together with staples, string or a ring.

PRESENTATION

Using a 3 x 5 index card, write your book's plot. You will verbally present this information to the class.

NOTE: plot is (1) characters (2) setting (3) Beginning, Middle, End (4) Problem and Solution

